

*The Hearts of Life
Pin*
● ● ●

*The Hearts of Life
Pin*
● ● ●

*The Hearts of Life
Pin*
● ● ●

*The Hearts of Life
Pin*
● ● ●

Hearts for Life Beaded Pin

A woman from the John Wesley Community Centre in Etwatwa, South Africa made this pin for you. This income generation project is one of the many programs that the Centre offers to people living with HIV and AIDS.

In the Memory Box Project, in little houses called “Points of Light” throughout the community, women living with AIDS are building boxes for their children to hold on to a few precious mementos. The boxes containing pictures, letters, medical records, and future instructions are given to the children after the women die.

Another Centre program trains volunteer foster parents to support a family when a parent with AIDS is in the last phase of the disease. The volunteers care for the children and reassure ailing parents of continuity in their children’s future.

The Coordinator of the pin program told PWRDF of how the pins are making a difference: “The project has been of such great benefit to our women. They have woven their dreams into these pins...of new clothes for their children, of bringing their children home to live, of education...”

$5 per pin with $4 directly in support of the HIV AIDS Initiative. Thank you for your support of The Primate’s World Relief and Development Fund
80 Hayden Street Toronto, Ontario M4Y 3G2
Toll Free: 1-866-308-7973 Web: www.pwrdf.org

Hearts for Life Beaded Pin

A woman from the John Wesley Community Centre in Etwatwa, South Africa made this pin for you. This income generation project is one of the many programs that the Centre offers to people living with HIV and AIDS.

In the Memory Box Project, in little houses called “Points of Light” throughout the community, women living with AIDS are building boxes for their children to hold on to a few precious mementos. The boxes containing pictures, letters, medical records, and future instructions are given to the children after the women die.

Another Centre program trains volunteer foster parents to support a family when a parent with AIDS is in the last phase of the disease. The volunteers care for the children and reassure ailing parents of continuity in their children’s future.

The Coordinator of the pin program told PWRDF of how the pins are making a difference: “The project has been of such great benefit to our women. They have woven their dreams into these pins...of new clothes for their children, of bringing their children home to live, of education...”

$5 per pin with $4 directly in support of the HIV AIDS Initiative. Thank you for your support of The Primate’s World Relief and Development Fund
80 Hayden Street Toronto, Ontario M4Y 3G2
Toll Free: 1-866-308-7973 Web: www.pwrdf.org

Hearts for Life Beaded Pin

A woman from the John Wesley Community Centre in Etwatwa, South Africa made this pin for you. This income generation project is one of the many programs that the Centre offers to people living with HIV and AIDS.

In the Memory Box Project, in little houses called “Points of Light” throughout the community, women living with AIDS are building boxes for their children to hold on to a few precious mementos. The boxes containing pictures, letters, medical records, and future instructions are given to the children after the women die.

Another Centre program trains volunteer foster parents to support a family when a parent with AIDS is in the last phase of the disease. The volunteers care for the children and reassure ailing parents of continuity in their children’s future.

The Coordinator of the pin program told PWRDF of how the pins are making a difference: “The project has been of such great benefit to our women. They have woven their dreams into these pins...of new clothes for their children, of bringing their children home to live, of education...”

$5 per pin with $4 directly in support of the HIV AIDS Initiative. Thank you for your support of The Primate’s World Relief and Development Fund
80 Hayden Street Toronto, Ontario M4Y 3G2
Toll Free: 1-866-308-7973 Web: www.pwrdf.org

Hearts for Life Beaded Pin

A woman from the John Wesley Community Centre in Etwatwa, South Africa made this pin for you. This income generation project is one of the many programs that the Centre offers to people living with HIV and AIDS.

In the Memory Box Project, in little houses called “Points of Light” throughout the community, women living with AIDS are building boxes for their children to hold on to a few precious mementos. The boxes containing pictures, letters, medical records, and future instructions are given to the children after the women die.

Another Centre program trains volunteer foster parents to support a family when a parent with AIDS is in the last phase of the disease. The volunteers care for the children and reassure ailing parents of continuity in their children’s future.

The Coordinator of the pin program told PWRDF of how the pins are making a difference: “The project has been of such great benefit to our women. They have woven their dreams into these pins...of new clothes for their children, of bringing their children home to live, of education...”

$5 per pin with $4 directly in support of the HIV AIDS Initiative. Thank you for your support of The Primate’s World Relief and Development Fund
80 Hayden Street Toronto, Ontario M4Y 3G2
Toll Free: 1-866-308-7973 Web: www.pwrdf.org